HELM

Run ops on autopilot

The operations autopilot for independent e-commerce brands.

THE PROBLEM

Independent online stores lose 12+ hours a week stitching together inventory, fulfillment, and customer support across disconnected tools. Hiring an ops manager is out of reach for most brands under $2M in revenue.

HOW HELM WORKS

Connect

Plugs into your existing store stack — Shopify, 3PL, support, ads.

Automate

Reorder alerts, shipment triage, refunds, and daily reporting run on their own.

Oversee

Human-in-the-loop dashboard — you approve, Helm executes.
